Counsel:

In response to your March 26, 2015 joint request for a further extension of the current March 30, 2015 enrollment deadline, Howmedica Osteonics Corp. will consent to extend the deadline one final time until 5PM on Friday, April 17, 2015. At this time, we do not expect any other deadlines to be affected by this further extension.

Please be sure to communicate this final extended deadline to your current counsel lists and also remind counsel that requests for further extensions for individual clients will not be granted. Hopefully the claimants and counsel who required the additional time will use the time wisely to move forward with enrollment by April 17, 2015.

A notice of the new enrollment deadline will be posted on the settlement program website today.

Very truly yours,

Kim M. Catullo
